Calling all S.C. certified Pre-K through 12 teachers!
Free re-certification course will save teachers nearly $1000.00 through the Summer Institute of Teaching & Learning at USCB

BLUFFTON, S.C. - The Center of Excellence in Collaborative Learning at the University of South Carolina Beaufort is pleased to offer a FREE three credit graduate course which can be used for recertification or for graduate-level course hours. This represents a savings of nearly $1000.00 off of the regular price of most recertification courses.

Space is extremely limited and there are only 25 tuition scholarships available. Registrants will be accepted on a "first come/first served" basis. This course is good for re-certification or as a graduate level course credit.
