Directions to Wardle's Landing Dock

- Take highway 21 through Beaufort to Fripp Island. Upon arrival at Fripp Island, you will approach a security gate which monitors all traffic on the island. Stop at the gate: explain that you are visiting Pritchards Island for the day or evening. They will ask for the driver's name and issue you a guest pass to display in your car. From the security gate, Wardle's Landing is approximately 3.1 miles.
- From the security gate, stay on the main road (Tarpon Blvd.). In 1.5 miles, you will first pass the fire station and a water tower on your right and then some tennis courts and condos on your right. Continue to follow Tarpon Blvd.
- At the next main intersection, approximately 1.8 miles from the guard gate, you will take a right onto Bonita Dr. There will be a small crossroads sign pointing to the Marina and Ocean Creek. After turning right onto Bonita Dr., you will immediately cross a small bridge.
- Follow Bonita Dr. and take the second left onto Ocean Creek Blvd., which is marked with a large sign saying Ocean Creek and Veranda Beach. On the right will be the golf course. Follow the road around the golf course for approximately 1 mile. Go past the last road on the left leading to the "Activities Center." Straight in front of you will be a large wooden archway made out of tree trunks with a hanging sign labeled, "WARDLE'S LANDING." Head under the archway and follow the gravel parking lot until it ends. You will then see a long dock. Park near the dock and the Pritchards Island staff will greet you in the parking lot at your scheduled arrival time.
- It usually take about 45-minutes to travel from downtown Beaufort to the Wardle's Landing dock.
