WELCOME BACK, english & theatre folks!

THE SHOW
SEASON 2
FORTNIGHTLY EVENTS SPRING 2015

TALKING WITH
11 funny, sad, alarming, and charming women share their stories as monologues: the spring theatre production is written by Jane Martin, directed by Prof. George Pate, and performed by USCB students.
When: Friday, 23 January & Saturday, 24 January
Where: USCB Center for the Arts

HOT CHOCOLATE REUNION
A spring sequel to the ice cream social: dear friends, good conversations, and lots and lots of chocolate
When: Wednesday, 28 January, 6–8 PM
Where: Lazy Lounge

IMPROV NIGHT!
Happy Valentine’s Week from The Sturdy Beggars!
When: Wednesday, 11 February, 6–8 PM
Where: Lazy Lounge

LIFE AFTER USCB
A series of discussions about your professional identities: “composing a life,” drafting & editing your résumé, planning for your graduate education or your career
When: Wednesday, 25 February, 6–8 PM
Where: Library 238

FACULTY ROUNDTABLE
English and Theatre faculty share their scholarship
When: Friday, 20 March, 12–4 PM
Where: Hargray 156

THE METASHOW
Inside English and Theatre: James-Lipton-style interviews featuring The Society of Creative Writers and Rogues and Vagabonds—and concluding with a lip sync off
When: Wednesday, 1 April, 6–8 PM
Where: Lazy Lounge

SIGMA TAU DELTA NIGHT
Savor the last weeks of spring courses with Sigma Tau Delta!
When: Wednesday, 15 April, 6–8 PM
Where: Lazy Lounge

READING BY THE SOCIETY OF CREATIVE WRITERS
A celebration for our creative writers, our English and Theatre graduates, and the spring launch of The Pen and The May River Review
When: Monday, 27 April, 6–8 PM
Where: Lazy Lounge