

General Education and Pre-Prerequisite Courses Required prior to admission to USC B's Nursing Major

- English (6 credits)
- College Algebra (3 credits)
- Communications (3 credits) (COMM 201 Interpersonal Communication)
- Liberal Arts (9 credits): Psychology (2 courses, general and developmental), Sociology
- Natural Sciences (12 credits): Anatomy & Physiology I/ II & Lab, Microbiology & Lab**
- Nutrition (3 credits)
- Statistics (3 credits)
- Nursing Concepts, Communications, and Calculations (3 Credits)
- U101 (3 credits): The Student in the university (nursing specific section): for USC B Freshman entries only

Overall cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above (based on the above courses) and a science GPA of 2.75 or above (based on Anatomy & Physiology I, Anatomy & Physiology II, and Microbiology).**

In addition, the following general education courses are required to graduate from USC B:

- Foreign Language (6 credits)
- Additional Liberal Arts (6 credits): History 3 credits, Fine Art 3 credits
- Global Citizenship and Multicultural Understanding (3 credits): fulfilled by the required NURS B330 Transcultural Health Course, which can be completed before or after admission to nursing program.

Updated 04-19-2023