

African American History Month 2016:

Understanding and Celebrating Our Shared South Carolina Story

February 3 & 17 - Culture & Cinema Chat. 5-8pm LIB 267. Cast your vote for Selma, The Butler, Malcolm X or Night Catches Us. Vote at www.afamuscb.com

February 8 - Gullah/Geechee Culture in the South Carolina Lowcountry. Queen Quet, Head-of-State for the Gullah/Geechee Nation. 2-3pm SCI/TECH 122 (space limited, registration required)

February 8 - Remember the Orangeburg Massacre Candlelight Vigil In front of the Campus Center *dusk/6pm

February 24 - Race, Education & Politics: The Long Walk Toward Social Justice in South Carolina. Dr. Millicent Brown, Panel Convener 3:30-5pm Hargray 156 *Door Prizes*

February 22 - Impact of the Civil War on African Americans in the South Carolina Lowcountry. Victoria Smalls, African American Heritage Commission. 2-3pm SCI/TECH 122 (space limited, registration required)

February 29 - Culture and Cuisine Chat, 11:30-12:30 Sand Bar Private Dining Room (RSVP required)

*Taste of Gullah / Soul Food options available at all Sand Bar stations*

February 25 - "Hants, Bugs 'N Boo Hags" - Gullah Folklore and Dr. Brian Canada's video game preview. 3:30-4:30pm Hargray 238 (PET conference room)

FOR MORE INFORMATION

www.afamuscb.com

Registration & Updates!

Pre and post event surveys!

Links to other local events & resources!

African American History Month 2016 events are presented by African American Studies and other partners at USCB. The purpose of this initiative is to encourage USCB student interest in African American Studies as well as to catalyze service learning activities and student research with a focus on African American culture in the South Carolina Lowcountry. These events are supported by a grant from the USCB Sea Islands Institute.