

Eyes on the Prize:

AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY
MONTH @USCB

2020 Vision

- Monday, January 20 Dr. MLK Day of Service – Voter Registration Drive
11am – 2pm • Campus Center Room 105, Bluffton
- Saturday, February 1 The Gershwin's Porgy & Bess
12:55pm USCB Center for the Arts Auditorium, Beaufort
($20 / $10.00 students)
- Tuesday, February 4 Opening Reception - Eyes on the Prize Documentary screening
& discussion • 5-7pm • Hargray Lobby, Bluffton
- Thursday, February 6 Eyes on the Prize Documentary & Discussion • 5-7pm • Center for the Arts Auditorium, Beaufort
- Saturday, February 8 Orangeburg Massacre Documentary, Discussion & Candlelight Vigil •
6-8pm • Center for the Arts Auditorium, Beaufort
- Monday, February 10 Movie Night & Discussion Panel: The Best of Enemies
Center for the Arts Auditorium, Beaufort $7.00
- Wednesday, February 12 Coming Full Circle: From Jim Crow to Journalism
Book Talk with author Wanda Lloyd • 5-7pm Library Room 237, Bluffton
- Thursday, February 13 Healthy People 2030 Panel: Social Justice in Healthcare
5-7pm • OLLI Room 103, Hilton Head
- Thursday, February 20 Student Panel Discussion: Voting Rights, Responsibilities, and Political Power 5-7pm Campus Center Room 105
- Friday, February 21 Hilton Head Island's Gullah Celebration – Gullah Music Series Featuring the Voices of El Shaddai (Off Campus Event –
5-8pm • Queen Chapel AME Church; USCB Van Reservations Available)
- Wednesday, February 26 The Divine 9 and the College Experience Panel Discussion &
Service Activity • 6-8pm • Campus Center Room 105
- Thursday, February 27 Closing Reception & Harlem Renaissance Freedom Ball
5-midnight • Campus Center Room 105

This program is sponsored by South Carolina Humanities, a not-for-profit organization; inspiring, engaging and enriching South Carolinians with programs on literature, history, culture and heritage.

