

Subject: Authority and Responsibility
Number: 528
Issued by: Vice Chancellor for Student Development
Date: July 19, 2007

AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

The responsibility for good conduct rests with students as individuals. Student organizations have similar responsibility for maintaining good conduct among their members and guests at activities they sponsor. All members of the University community are expected to use reasonable judgment in their daily campus life and to show due concern for the welfare and rights of others.

The Board of Trustees is the governing body of the University; the powers of the President, the campus Chancellor and the faculty are delegated by the Board in accordance with policies. The student discipline system is administered by the Office of Student Development. Student Government, as an elected and representative voice of the student body, has the right to comment on any proposed changes pertaining to the discipline of students.

The Vice Chancellor is, in turn, responsible for the total operation of the Student Discipline System. This responsibility includes formulating and implementing policies and procedures, in cooperation with other appropriate University bodies, for the judicial consideration of conduct violations and the imposition of sanctions in an efficient, consistent, fair, legal and educationally meaningful manner.
