FILM300: SUMMER MOVIES: APPRECIATION AND ANALYSIS

2 Sessions | Mondays | June 16, July 21 | 1-4PM | In-Person | Bluffton campus

Summer movies bring about breezy visions of sun, sea, sand, and fun, but a deeper look reveals they are so much more. In this course, we will analyze classic and little-known summer films to examine what they can tell us about human nature. After these sessions, all participants will hopefully understand that summer films are art and not just a way for movie studios to make money and for movie viewers to escape the heat.

JOE PEROTA is a 40-year veteran of the film and television industry. He started directing at the age of 26 and is a member of the Directors Guild of America. Joe has won or been nominated for numerous awards, including the Peabody and the Emmy.

GARDENING

GAR300: HOT HOT OR NOT (PEPPERS)

1 Session | Wednesday | June 11 | 10-11:30AM | In-Person | Bluffton campus

The pepper plant, Capsicum frutescens, is native to Central America. Since the 17th century, it has become an essential ingredient in cuisines of China, Southeast Asia, the Indian subcontinent, Africa, and Europe. Having traveled to over fifty countries, Victoria has documented these delightful fruits growing and being served worldwide. It just so happens that chili peppers thrive in our Lowcountry. In a mild winter, they may be producing fruit in January. This presentation includes the history, geography, cuisine, growing tips, and preservation of these gems.

VICTORIA BERGESEN belongs to The Beaufort Garden Club, Lowcountry Master Gardeners, and the South Carolina Native Plant Society. She is a National Garden Clubs Master Environmental Consultant, Master Flower Show Judge, Master Gardening Consultant, and Master Landscape Design Consultant.

GAR301: PERMACULTURE? HOW CAN I DO THIS IN MY OWN YARD?

1 Session | Tuesday | June 19 | 1-2:30PM | In-Person | Beaufort campus

Learn about the concept of permaculture, a sustainable method of cultivation that harmonizes with nature. It can be adaptable to various spaces, including containers, porches, yards, gardens, and farms. This approach is very natural and fosters a healthy ecosystem. Permaculture is based on a set of design principles derived from whole-systems thinking. Come learn how to implement these principles in your own yard!

DIANE MOREY is a certified beekeeper in SC and GA, Lowcountry Master Naturalist, Jasper County Master Gardener, member of the South Coast Chapter of the SC Native Plant Society, and Certified Permaculture consultant. Diane has spoken for many environmentally friendly and agricultural groups from Georgia to North and South Carolina. She was featured in "Local Life" magazine in April 2022. Her farm, established in 1998, is a combination of permaculture and traditional farming.

GAR302: THE ABCs OF PLANT PROPAGATION

1 Session | Tuesday | July 8 | 10:00-11:30AM | In-Person | Beaufort campus

Laura Lee Rose will demonstrate the basics of plant propagation. Want to grow more plants and save a lot of money, give to friends, etc.? Laura Lee will show you how.

LAURA LEE ROSE recently retired from her long term role as the Horticulture Agent and County Office Coordinator for the Beaufort County Clemson Extension Office. In that role, she taught the Master Gardener classes and provided lawn and gardening advice throughout the county. She is currently the South Coast Chapter President of The South Carolina Native Plant Society.

GAR303: PLANT THIS NOT THAT

1 Session | Tuesday | July 29 | 1:30-3PM | In-Person | Hilton Head campus

Learn what an invasive species is and why they are a threat to our environment. Find out which plants are the top offenders locally and what native plants are alternatives that will grow well in our region.

WENDY DICKES is the Horticulture Manager at the Coastal Discovery Museum. She is also a Master Gardener, Master Naturalist and is active with the Audubon Society. She is passionate about preserving the environment of the Lowcountry and encouraging the growth of native plants while keeping alive the history plants have played in this area.

SSTI THEATER

Presented by:

BEN WOLFE, SSTI's Founder and Director in SSTI's 17th year.

THE302: SNEAK PREVIEW OF 9 TO 5

1 Session | Thursday | June 12 | 11AM-Noon | Zoom

The Southeast Summer Theater Institute (SSTI) launches into its 18th season with Dolly Parton's classic, 9 to 5 musical. Filled with all the songs you love, plus a few new tunes written for the musical by the country queen herself, this musical brings all the fun from the classic film to the stage. Contrary to the show's title, the team at SSTI has been working much longer than 9 to 5 to bring this massive musical to life. SSTI Producer and Founder Ben Wolfe will take us behind the scenes on the creative design process that starts roughly six months before the curtain ever rises on the SSTI stage.

THE304: SNEAK PREVIEW OF ANYTHING GOES

1 Session | Thursday | July 17 | 11AM-Noon | Zoom

SSTI sets sail with the classic Cole Porter musical comedy, Anything Goes, as the conclusion of their 18th season. Anything Goes represents an exciting milestone for SSTI as its first show in SSTI's 18-year history to be repeated. We'll hear from SSTI Producer and Founder Ben Wolfe about the decision to bring this hit musical back almost a decade after their original production, and why this musical seems to span the generations with its enduring humor, heart, and utterly irresistible tunes. All aboard!

THE303: 9 TO 5 MUSICAL POST SHOW DISCUSSION

1 Session | Sunday | June 22 | 1-3:30PM | In-Person
Offsite (Hilton Head)

Following the performance of 9 To 5, the musical, OLLI members have the opportunity to meet with Ben Wolfe, select members of the design team, and the Broadway star at the production's helm, Jelani Remy. This interactive session will allow members to delve into the production process and hear engaging stories from the creative process. SSTI's creative and design teams helm from the nation's largest stages and top universities. Participants are encouraged to engage in the discussion and pose questions about this production's iconic music, performers, costumes, props, and set designs.

THE305: ANYTHING GOES MUSICAL POST SHOW DISCUSSION

1 Session | Sunday | July 27 | 1-3:30PM | In-Person
Offsite (Hilton Head)

Following the performance of Anything Goes, a classical musical, OLLI members have the opportunity to meet with Ben Wolfe, select members of the design team, and SSTI favorite Jacob Brent, who returns to the stage in this classical musical. This interactive session, moderated by Wolfe, will allow members to delve into the production process and hear engaging stories from the creative process. SSTI's creative and design teams helm from the nation's largest stages and top universities. Participants are encouraged to engage in the discussion and pose questions about this production of Anything Goes, its performers, musicians, and set designers.

NOTE: OLLI members MUST register with OLLI for these back-stage opportunities. Members are also responsible for purchasing their tickets to the production directly with SSTI as directed below.

Please make sure you purchase your ticket for 9 to 5 (June 22) or Anything Goes (July 27) live performance by calling 866-749-2228 or visiting www.hhisummermusicals.com. Identify yourself as an OLLI member so that they know you will be attending the backstage tour after the show. The performance will be held at the Hilton Head High School.

TRA300: ENJOYING THE PAST AND PRESENT OF
NEW YORK CITY: A HISTORY OF RECREATION IN THE BIG APPLE
6 Sessions | Wednesdays | July 9, 16, 23, 30, Aug 6, 13 | 11AM-12:30PM | In-Person
Bluffton campus

NEW

This class will be livestreamed from Osher Online into the Bluffton classroom

This course will explore the history of Manhattan, emphasizing the unique traits that drew into its harbor millions of immigrants and millions more tourists seeking its many resources, rich culture, and complex history. Together, we will explore the history of New York City's parks, city shopping, entertainment venues, museums, and concerts. We will also discuss the social and arts movements that grew out of the city. Gain an appreciation of what the city has to offer its visitors and an insight into the history behind the tourist attractions.

TRA301: FLORIDA'S LARGEST CITY - KEY WEST
OLLI Digital Library available to watch until August 31, 2025

But for the vagaries of history and Mother Nature, Key West could have become a vastly different place than the resort we know today. Its development as an important port and military base was derailed (literally) by the 1935 Labor Day hurricane. However, the "Conch Republic" re-invented itself and became home to an intriguing group of individuals. As one Key West resident said, "This is where the weird go pro." Join us as we discover the history of Key West and visit with some of its residents, past and present, including Ernest Hemingway, Tennessee Williams, Jimmy Buffet, Thomas McGuane and others.

WRI300: A MEMOIR MASTERCLASS
2 Sessions | Tuesdays | July 15, 22 | 1-3 PM | In-Person | Beaufort campus

NEW

Limited Enrollment - 12

Calling all adventurous writers to transform memories into captivating stories.

We are all blessed with the story we have, and that story is worth telling. Even if you are a beginner, you can do this and learn how to find your voice and the tools to use it. Whether you write because you seek to pass your story to family and friends or dream of writing a personal cookbook with stories telling your life, this course will guide you step by step through mining the riches of your life's experiences. Only you can tell your story.

PATRICIA BRANNING is a Journalism graduate from the University of Georgia. Pat served as Women's Editor for WSB Radio, Atlanta, where she became the woman's voice for the South through her daily radio programs. Later, she became the Assistant to media mogul Ted Turner. She is the author of 7 best-selling books on the South Carolina Lowcountry and now presents "The Anniversary Edition of Shrimp, Collards, and Grits." Pat is a prolific writer of books, periodicals, and magazine stories.

NRC300: THE ECONOMICS OF PUBLIC POLICY ISSUES

6 Sessions | Tuesdays | July 8 to August 12 | 1PM-2:30PM | Online Only

Economics plays a central role in shaping every aspect of society. This course examines a series of prominent policy issues with economics at their core and explores the origins of these issues, the underlying data and evidence, and the policy tools available to address them. Potential topics include climate change, healthcare economics, economic inequality, and more, with final selections based on the most relevant and timely issues at the start of the course.

NRC301: BEHIND THOSE BABY BLUES: The Films of Paul Newman

6 Sessions | Tuesdays | July 8 to August 12 | 3PM-4:30PM | Online Only

Paul Newman, the embodiment of charisma, captivated movie audiences with his iconic baby blue eyes, striking features, and a powerful screen presence. Known for his multiple Academy Award-nominated performances in films like Cat on a Hot Tin Roof (1958), The Hustler (1961), and Absence of Malice (1981), Newman ultimately won an Oscar for The Color of Money (1986), the sequel to The Hustler. Alongside his acting career, he pursued a parallel path as a race car driver and dedicated significant time to entrepreneurial and philanthropic endeavors. This course will trace the timeline of Newman's remarkable career.

NRC302: HISTORY OF BEER

6 Sessions | Tuesdays | July 8 to August 12 | 7PM-8:30PM | Online Only

Historians, beer enthusiasts, and curious minds alike will enjoy this exploration of the history of brewing. We will begin in the distant past with the invention of beer around 4000 BCE. Then we will journey through time to the modern rise of craft brewing. Along the way, we will dive into fascinating topics including medieval brewing, beer in Shakespeare's era, colonial brewing, Prohibition, indigenous brewing traditions worldwide, and the evolution of beer commercials.

NRC303: DEMYSTIFYING ENERGY SECURITY

6 Sessions | Wednesdays | July 9 to August 13 | 1PM-2:30PM | Online Only

Energy is essential for both national and economic security, underpinning all aspects of life. Yet discussions of energy security often exclude the public, reducing complex issues to simplistic narratives like "Green is Good" or "Oil is Evil," which provide little actionable insight. In this course, you will engage in a comprehensive examination of energy's role in human development. Topics include the unmatched importance of hydrocarbons (oil and more); advancements in electricity, the past, present, and future of nuclear energy; and the potential of renewables. We will explore how these energy sources impact national security, economic stability, industrial production, transportation, and daily life.

NRC304: ARCHITECTURAL ODDITIES: An off-the-beaten path look at unconventional architecture

6 Sessions | Wednesdays | July 9 to August 13 | 1PM-2:30PM | Online Only

Architectural history follows a canon of both traditional and eclectic styles from ancient to contemporary times. But what happens when a mix of whimsy, eccentricity, humor and sometimes the creator's genius insert themselves into the mix? Occurring throughout time and in various parts of the world, these unconventional structures exist to serve the cultures they were created for, from ancient religious sites to modern car-culture merriment. This course explores a myriad of structures set against the backdrop of the societies in which they existed, the construction methods used, the patrons for whom these structures were constructed, and the notions of the builders and architects who created them.

NRC305: PUBLIC HEALTH ACROSS THE LIFESPAN

6 Sessions | Wednesdays | July 9 to August 13 | 5PM-6:30PM | Online Only

This course provides a comprehensive overview of key public health topics across the human lifespan, from prenatal health to aging care. We will examine major health challenges, interventions, and policies that impact individuals at each life stage. By focusing on health disparities, preventive care, and the role of public health systems, the course equips us with the knowledge and skills to understand health issues in diverse populations. Through readings and case studies, we will gain insight into the life-course approach to public health, emphasizing the importance of early intervention, continuous care, and aging with dignity.

NRC306: 100 YEARS OF MAGIC: The Disney Legacy and Influence

6 Sessions | Thursdays | July 10 to August 14 | 7PM-8:30PM | Online Only

In this course, we will explore the 100-year history of one of the largest and most globally recognized brands, Walt Disney. We will start by understanding Walt himself, and then dive into the organization's different business units, exploring the film and media side of the business as well as the parks and resorts. We will peek under the hood at what it is like to work at Disney. We will close the course by learning about Disney's leadership over the years and how they have wielded their influence in politics. Throughout this course, we will seek out varying perspectives, giving us a view from those who revere the Magic Kingdom, those who critique it, and everywhere in between.

NRC307: ECHOS OF 1920s: The Lost Generation's Creative Revolution

6 Sessions | Tuesdays | July 15 to August 19 | 5PM-6:30PM | Online Only

This course delves into the literary brilliance and vibrant lives of the Lost Generation-American writers who, disillusioned by the devastation of World War I, gathered in 1920s Paris in search of new cultural and personal identities. We will explore major works by authors such as Ernest Hemingway, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Gertrude Stein, and T.S. Eliot, alongside the groundbreaking contributions of visual artists of the time. Together, we will examine how these creators captured the alienation and upheaval of their era, producing some of the most transformative art and literature of the 20th century.

NRC308: STORIES OF ADVENTURE: The Norse Sagas

6 Sessions | Wednesdays | July 16 to August 20 | 3PM-4:30PM | Online Only

Are you interested in stories rich with murder, intrigue, and sharp wit? This course will explore the Norse sagas, which are medieval tales rooted in Old Norse mythology, written in Iceland centuries after the Viking era. These stories range from realistic travel chronicles to epic sword-and-sorcery adventures, and they offer a fascinating glimpse into "Dark Age" swashbuckling. In this course, we will also discuss how these stories continue to profoundly influence modern culture.
